INDEX

	Page
Chapter I
INFLUENCING A PUBLIC OFFICER:
THE FUNCTIONAL EQUIVALENTS OF A BRIB	E
1. From the profane of the bribe-bag to the sacred of the brid	e-
bag: Matter of exchanges	1
2. On influence: Stories of Reciprocity and Mikro-Politik	4
3. Disciplining the influence over elected representatives are civil servants	8
4. The European league of lobbying: The German-case at the Italian-case	1a
4.1. Deregulation and privileges: The German-case	16
4.2. Fiction of regulation and friction with Criminal La
The Italian-case	18
5. Nature and paths of the American regulation on influen	ce
over public officials	24
Chapter II
CRIMINAL LAW AND TRANSPARENCY
THROUGHOUT THE REGULATIONS
OF CAMPAIGN FINANCE
1. Criminal Law and campaign financing: The need for a reulation outside the criminal punishment	g- 45
r

3. How to regulate private campaign funding 4. How to balance private and public in campaign finance 5. How not to really discipline private political funding 6. Transparency and criminal law in the field of influencing public decision-makers Chapter III MODELLING A CRIMINAL LAW REGULATION ON POLITICAL CORRUPTION 1. Inside influencing: The line between crime and freedom 2. Normatively describing the unlawful influence 3. Approaches in incriminating forms of influence and lobbying Chapter IV THE STAKEHOLDER-FOCUSED AMERICAN MODEL OF ANTI-CORRUPTION CRIMINAL LAW 1. The US-Model of punishing public corruption in political activities 2. Punishing the symptoms of corruption 3.1. The appearances of exchange and the bribery offence 3.2. The appearances by gifting and the unlawful gratuity offence 3.3. Punishing exchanges and gifts as if they were extortion 3.4. Punishing exchanges and gifts as a violation of a right		Page
3. How to regulate private campaign funding 4. How to balance private and public in campaign finance 5. How not to really discipline private political funding 6. Transparency and criminal law in the field of influencing public decision-makers Chapter III MODELLING A CRIMINAL LAW REGULATION ON POLITICAL CORRUPTION 1. Inside influencing: The line between crime and freedom 2. Normatively describing the unlawful influence 3. Approaches in incriminating forms of influence and lobbying Chapter IV THE STAKEHOLDER-FOCUSED AMERICAN MODEL OF ANTI-CORRUPTION CRIMINAL LAW 1. The US-Model of punishing public corruption in political activities 2. Punishing the symptoms of corruption 3.1. The appearances of exchange and the bribery offence 3.2. The appearances by gifting and the unlawful gratuity offence 3.3. Punishing exchanges and gifts as if they were extortion 3.4. Punishing exchanges and gifts as a violation of a right	2. Criminal law policy and campaign finance: A matter of pro-
4. How to balance private and public in campaign finance 5. How not to really discipline private political funding 6. Transparency and criminal law in the field of influencing public decision-makers Chapter III MODELLING A CRIMINAL LAW REGULATION ON POLITICAL CORRUPTION 1. Inside influencing: The line between crime and freedom 2. Normatively describing the unlawful influence 3. Approaches in incriminating forms of influence and lobbying Chapter IV THE STAKEHOLDER-FOCUSED AMERICAN MODEL OF ANTI-CORRUPTION CRIMINAL LAW 1. The US-Model of punishing public corruption in political activities 2. Punishing the symptoms of corruption 3.1. The appearances of exchange and the bribery offence 3.2. The appearances by gifting and the unlawful gratuity offence 3.3. Punishing exchanges and gifts as if they were extortion 3.4. Punishing exchanges and gifts as a violation of a right	hibitions and disclosures	50
5. How not to really discipline private political funding 6. Transparency and criminal law in the field of influencing public decision-makers Chapter III MODELLING A CRIMINAL LAW REGULATION ON POLITICAL CORRUPTION 1. Inside influencing: The line between crime and freedom 2. Normatively describing the unlawful influence 3. Approaches in incriminating forms of influence and lobbying Chapter IV THE STAKEHOLDER-FOCUSED AMERICAN MODEL OF ANTI-CORRUPTION CRIMINAL LAW 1. The US-Model of punishing public corruption in political activities 2. Punishing the symptoms of corruption 3.1. The appearances of exchange and the bribery offence 3.2. The appearances by gifting and the unlawful gratuity offence 3.3. Punishing exchanges and gifts as if they were extortion 3.4. Punishing exchanges and gifts as a violation of a right		53
Chapter III MODELLING A CRIMINAL LAW REGULATION ON POLITICAL CORRUPTION 1. Inside influencing: The line between crime and freedom 2. Normatively describing the unlawful influence 3. Approaches in incriminating forms of influence and lobbying Chapter IV THE STAKEHOLDER-FOCUSED AMERICAN MODEL OF ANTI-CORRUPTION CRIMINAL LAW 1. The US-Model of punishing public corruption in political activities 2. Punishing the symptoms of corruption 3. Punishing an appearance of corruption 3.1. The appearances of exchange and the bribery offence 3.2. The appearances by gifting and the unlawful gratuity offence 3.3. Punishing exchanges and gifts as if they were extortion 3.4. Punishing exchanges and gifts as a violation of a right		58
Chapter III MODELLING A CRIMINAL LAW REGULATION ON POLITICAL CORRUPTION 1. Inside influencing: The line between crime and freedom 2. Normatively describing the unlawful influence 3. Approaches in incriminating forms of influence and lobbying Chapter IV THE STAKEHOLDER-FOCUSED AMERICAN MODEL OF ANTI-CORRUPTION CRIMINAL LAW 1. The US-Model of punishing public corruption in political activities 2. Punishing the symptoms of corruption 3. Punishing an appearance of corruption 3.1. The appearances of exchange and the bribery offence 3.2. The appearances by gifting and the unlawful gratuity offence 3.3. Punishing exchanges and gifts as if they were extortion 3.4. Punishing exchanges and gifts as a violation of a right	, , , ,	62
MODELLING A CRIMINAL LAW REGULATION ON POLITICAL CORRUPTION 1. Inside influencing: The line between crime and freedom 2. Normatively describing the unlawful influence 3. Approaches in incriminating forms of influence and lobbying Chapter IV THE STAKEHOLDER-FOCUSED AMERICAN MODEL OF ANTI-CORRUPTION CRIMINAL LAW 1. The US-Model of punishing public corruption in political activities 2. Punishing the symptoms of corruption 3. Punishing an appearance of corruption 3. Punishing an appearance of exchange and the bribery offence 3. The appearances by gifting and the unlawful gratuity offence 3. Punishing exchanges and gifts as if they were extortion 3. Punishing exchanges and gifts as a violation of a right	public decision-makers	67
ON POLITICAL CORRUPTION 1. Inside influencing: The line between crime and freedom 2. Normatively describing the unlawful influence 3. Approaches in incriminating forms of influence and lobbying Chapter IV THE STAKEHOLDER-FOCUSED AMERICAN MODEL OF ANTI-CORRUPTION CRIMINAL LAW 1. The US-Model of punishing public corruption in political activities 2. Punishing the symptoms of corruption 3. Punishing an appearance of corruption 3.1. The appearances of exchange and the bribery offence 3.2. The appearances by gifting and the unlawful gratuity offence 3.3. Punishing exchanges and gifts as if they were extortion 3.4. Punishing exchanges and gifts as a violation of a right	Chapter III
ON POLITICAL CORRUPTION 1. Inside influencing: The line between crime and freedom 2. Normatively describing the unlawful influence 3. Approaches in incriminating forms of influence and lobbying Chapter IV THE STAKEHOLDER-FOCUSED AMERICAN MODEL OF ANTI-CORRUPTION CRIMINAL LAW 1. The US-Model of punishing public corruption in political activities 2. Punishing the symptoms of corruption 3. Punishing an appearance of corruption 3.1. The appearances of exchange and the bribery offence 3.2. The appearances by gifting and the unlawful gratuity offence 3.3. Punishing exchanges and gifts as if they were extortion 3.4. Punishing exchanges and gifts as a violation of a right	MODELLING A CRIMINAL LAW RECLILATION
2. Normatively describing the unlawful influence 3. Approaches in incriminating forms of influence and lobbying Chapter IV THE STAKEHOLDER-FOCUSED AMERICAN MODEL OF ANTI-CORRUPTION CRIMINAL LAW 1. The US-Model of punishing public corruption in political activities 2. Punishing the symptoms of corruption 3. Punishing an appearance of corruption 3.1. The appearances of exchange and the bribery offence 3.2. The appearances by gifting and the unlawful gratuity offence 3.3. Punishing exchanges and gifts as if they were extortion 3.4. Punishing exchanges and gifts as a violation of a right
Chapter IV THE STAKEHOLDER-FOCUSED AMERICAN MODEL OF ANTI-CORRUPTION CRIMINAL LAW 1. The US-Model of punishing public corruption in political activities 2. Punishing the symptoms of corruption 3. Punishing an appearance of corruption 3.1. The appearances of exchange and the bribery offence 3.2. The appearances by gifting and the unlawful gratuity offence 3.3. Punishing exchanges and gifts as if they were extortion 3.4. Punishing exchanges and gifts as a violation of a right		71
Chapter IV THE STAKEHOLDER-FOCUSED AMERICAN MODEL OF ANTI-CORRUPTION CRIMINAL LAW 1. The US-Model of punishing public corruption in political activities 2. Punishing the symptoms of corruption 3. Punishing an appearance of corruption 3.1. The appearances of exchange and the bribery offence 3.2. The appearances by gifting and the unlawful gratuity offence 3.3. Punishing exchanges and gifts as if they were extortion 3.4. Punishing exchanges and gifts as a violation of a right	,	77
THE STAKEHOLDER-FOCUSED AMERICAN MODEL OF ANTI-CORRUPTION CRIMINAL LAW 1. The US-Model of punishing public corruption in political activities 2. Punishing the symptoms of corruption 3. Punishing an appearance of corruption 3.1. The appearances of exchange and the bribery offence 3.2. The appearances by gifting and the unlawful gratuity offence 3.3. Punishing exchanges and gifts as if they were extortion 3.4. Punishing exchanges and gifts as a violation of a right	3. Approaches in incriminating forms of influence and lobbying	82
AMERICAN MODEL OF ANTI-CORRUPTION CRIMINAL LAW 1. The US-Model of punishing public corruption in political activities 2. Punishing the symptoms of corruption 3. Punishing an appearance of corruption 3.1. The appearances of exchange and the bribery offence 3.2. The appearances by gifting and the unlawful gratuity offence 3.3. Punishing exchanges and gifts as if they were extortion 3.4. Punishing exchanges and gifts as a violation of a right	Chapter IV
AMERICAN MODEL OF ANTI-CORRUPTION CRIMINAL LAW 1. The US-Model of punishing public corruption in political activities 2. Punishing the symptoms of corruption 3. Punishing an appearance of corruption 3.1. The appearances of exchange and the bribery offence 3.2. The appearances by gifting and the unlawful gratuity offence 3.3. Punishing exchanges and gifts as if they were extortion 3.4. Punishing exchanges and gifts as a violation of a right	THE STAKEHOLDER-FOCUSED
CRIMINAL LAW 1. The US-Model of punishing public corruption in political activities 2. Punishing the symptoms of corruption 3. Punishing an appearance of corruption 3.1. The appearances of exchange and the bribery offence 3.2. The appearances by gifting and the unlawful gratuity offence 3.3. Punishing exchanges and gifts as if they were extortion 3.4. Punishing exchanges and gifts as a violation of a right activities 2. Punishing the symptoms of corruption 3. Punishing an appearance of corruption 3.1. The appearances of exchange and the bribery offence 3.2. The appearances by gifting and the unlawful gratuity offence 3.3. Punishing exchanges and gifts as if they were extortion 3.4. Punishing exchanges and gifts as a violation of a right
 Punishing the symptoms of corruption Punishing an appearance of corruption The appearances of exchange and the bribery offence The appearances by gifting and the unlawful gratuity offence Punishing exchanges and gifts as if they were extortion Punishing exchanges and gifts as a violation of a right
3. Punishing an appearance of corruption 3.1. The appearances of exchange and the bribery offence 3.2. The appearances by gifting and the unlawful gratuity offence 3.3. Punishing exchanges and gifts as if they were extortion 3.4. Punishing exchanges and gifts as a violation of a right		89
3.1. The appearances of exchange and the bribery offence 3.2. The appearances by gifting and the unlawful gratuity offence 3.3. Punishing exchanges and gifts as if they were extortion 3.4. Punishing exchanges and gifts as a violation of a right		92
 3.2. The appearances by gifting and the unlawful gratuity offence 3.3. Punishing exchanges and gifts as if they were extortion 3.4. Punishing exchanges and gifts as a violation of a right 		97
offence 103 3.3. Punishing exchanges and gifts as if they were extortion 100 3.4. Punishing exchanges and gifts as a violation of a right		99
3.3. Punishing exchanges and gifts as if they were extortion3.4. Punishing exchanges and gifts as a violation of a right		102
3.4. Punishing exchanges and gifts as a violation of a right to honesty in the public offices: The honest services
		106
	•	110

Index IX

	Page
Chapter V
THE PUBLIC OFFICIALS FOCUSED GERMAN MODEL OF ANTI-CORRUPTION CRIMINAL LAW
 The German Model of punishing public corruption in political activities Anticorruption Criminal Law related to public administrative officers Anticorruption Criminal Law related to elected representatives 	117 119 125
Chapter VI
THE IRRATIONAL MODEL OF THE ITALIAN ANTI-CORRUPTION CRIMINAL LAW
 The Italian Model of relationships between influence, lobbying and criminal law The dangerous irrationality of a sort of self-corruptive circuit The offence of trafficking in unlawful influences 	135 140 150
Chapter VII
ANTI-CORRUPTION LAW CRITICISM
 Influence, criminal law, and torments of the Democracy Influence between ideas of democracy and roles of criminal law Critique of the Anti-corruption wave: apparent crime and moralistic reality 	163 165 169
4. From crime to sin 5. Crime, sin, and the 'Worst of Leadership'	175 182
References	187