

INDEX

	pag.
Participants to the summer school 2019	XV
Introduction	XVII

LAW AND RULES: THE NEW CHINESE CIVIL CODE

THE NEW CHINESE CIVIL CODE AND THE REALITY OF THE LOAN

Antonio Saccoccio

1. The category of the real contract in the face of the attacks from a false modernity	3
2. The New Civil Code of the People's Republic of China and the contract	7
3. The loan in the Chinese Contract Law and the Civil Code	12
A. The structure: reality and consensuality	12
B. Preliminary obligations and content of the contract	19
C. Gratuity	20
D. Form, damages and 'mutuo di scopo'	23
4. Conclusions	25

ROMAN SOCIETAS AND MODERN COMPANIES MODELS. A COMPARISON BETWEEN 'ATYPICAL' AND 'TYPICAL' MODELS IN THE TWO EXPERIENCES

Aldo Petrucci

1. Partnership (societas) in Roman Law: modern points of view and ancient legal sources	30
2. The partnership to carry on one business (societas unius negotiationis) and its flexibility in the Roman legal thought	32
3. Special rules for partnerships relate to banking and slave trade	35

	pag.
4. Partnerships based on the appointment of an agent	36
5. General remarks on the model of partnership in Roman law	37
6. A short overlook on partnership model in the lex mercatoria of the Late Middle Age	38
7. Modern and present times	39
8. Some final reflexions	41

RES NULLIUS IN ROMAN LAW, ANCIENT CHINESE LAW
AND CURRENT CHINESE LAW

Xu GuoDong

1. Res Nullius in Roman Law	43
2. Res Nullius in Ancient Chinese Law	45
3. China's Reception of the Concept of Res Nullius of Western Law since the End of the Qing Dynasty and Abandoning it in Nowadays	47
4. The Norms about Res Nullius in Current Chinese Law	49
5. Why the Civil Code of the PRC has not Established the Concept of Res Nullius and the System of First possession?	56

EARLY REFERENCES TO THE ROMANIST LEGAL TRADITION
IN THE LATE QUING CHINESE SOURCES: ROMAN LAW IN KANG YOUWEI'S WRITINGS

Lara Colangelo

1. Roman Law in Kang Youwei's Writings	60
--	----

QUINTUS MUCIUS SCAEVOLA
AND THE OBLIGATION IN THE PRC CIVIL CODE

Stefano Porcelli

1. Introduction	71
2. Quintus Mucius Scaevola and the obligatio	75
A. Quintus Mucius Publii filius pontifex maximus ius civile pri- mus constituit generatim... Brief methodological remarks	75
B. Quintus Mucius Scaevola and the 'inception' of the obligatio	77
C. The obligation in the modern and XXI century codes	81
D. The liability and the responsibility	83
3. The obligation in the PRC Civil Code	85
A. A (brief) overview of the ancient Chinese concepts of 灋 (fa) and 禮 (li)	85

	pag.
B. From the late-Qing (清末) ‘modernization’ to the influence of the socialist models	87
C. The Opening and reform policies and the Civil code of the PRC	90
4. Conclusions	92

WEALTH: PRODUCTION AND CIRCULATION

PRIVATE WEALTH AND MODELS OF RIGHT’S CIRCULATION

Valerio Pescatore

1. Foreword	97
2. Concept of private wealth	98
3. Categories of ‘things’	99
4. Categories of ‘rights’	100
5. Public-owned and private-owned properties	101
6. Concept of circulation	101
7. Types of contracts. Sale (do ut des). Lease (do ut facias)	103
8. Other distinctions and principles	105
9. Conclusions	108

THE UNSPOKEN WEALTH: SUSTAINABILITY

Elena Verdolini

1. The premises of sustainable development: from the Stockholm Conference to the mid-1980s	109
2. The Brundtland Report: the first definition of sustainable development	111
3. The Earth Summit: Rio de Janeiro 1992	113
4. The Millennium Declaration and the Millennium Development Goals	116
5. Rio+10	117
6. Rio+20	119
7. The Sustainable Development Goals	120
8. Conclusion	122

LAW AND ECONOMICS IN NON-WESTERN LEGAL SYSTEMS

Salvatore Mancuso

1. Introductory remarks	127
2. Islamic law	127
3. Chinese law	139
4. African law	148
5. Conclusions: law, economics and the global market	154

UNPAID WORK, SILENT (HIDDEN) WEALTH

Susanna Pozzolo

1. Introduction	157
2. Many kinds of jobs ... for both genders?	159
3. Women and time poverty	166
4. Unpaid work as women's servitude	170
5. Some conclusions	172

EU-CHINA LEGAL COOPERATION ON IPR: NEW STRATEGIES
FOR THE PROTECTION OF WEALTH*Angela Carpi*

1. General Framework of EU-China Cooperation on Intellectual Property	175
2. Towards Innovation: the Chinese National Intellectual Property Strategy	179
3. The Implementation of the National Intellectual Property Strategy and its Consequences on IPR Protection	180
4. Chinese Indigenous Innovation Policies	184
5. Outcome and prospects on EU-China Cooperation	187

AN OVERVIEW OF THE BEPS PROJECT AND THE EU FISCAL
STATE AIDS BETWEEN THE PAST AND THE FUTURE*Giuseppe Corasaniti*

I. Background	193
II. Development of a comprehensive BEPS Action Plan	194
1. The BEPS package	194
2. Implementation of the BEPS package through joint action	195
3. Establishment of the Inclusive Framework on BEPS	196

	pag.
4. BEPS implementation at a national level	196
III. The objectives of the Project	197
IV. Latest developments of the BEPS project	210
V. State aid, tax competition and BEPS	212
1. Focus: the “Apple case”	213
2. The General Court annuls the Commission’s decision concerning tax exemptions granted by Belgium by means of rulings	215
2.1. ECJ Sets Aside General Court’s Decision and Refers Case Back in Belgian Excess Profit Scheme: Magnetrol (Case C-337/19 P)	217
VI. Background on the Commission’s State aid investigations on tax	218

WEALTH AND CIVIL JUSTICE. A COMPARATIVE VIEW
ON JUDICIARY INDEPENDENCE
AND ACCOUNTABILITY IN ITALY

Luca Passanante

0. Introduction	221
1. Institutional profile	222
1.1. What is the judiciary?	223
1.2. The principle of «independence» and «autonomy» of the judiciary	224
1.3. The Superior Council of the Judiciary (and other boards) as institutional expression of the autonomy principle	225
1.4. The «Judge is only subject to law» principle	228
1.5. The «justice is given in the name of the people»	229
1.6. The «natural Judge pre-established by law» principle	230
1.7. The impartiality of the Judge	232
1.8. The irremovability of the Judge	233
1.9. The salary of the Judge	233
2. Accountability of the Judiciary	234
2.1. Civil accountability for damages	234
2.2. Disciplinary accountability	237
2.3. Political accountability	239
3. Transparency in civil process	239
3.1. Transparency along the proceeding	239
3.2. Transparency and judicial decision	240
3.3. Transparency after the decision	241
4. Evaluation and Ranking of Civil Justice in Italy	243
4.1. Internal evaluation	243
4.2. External evaluation	243

NEW RULES ON FOREIGN INVESTMENT IN CHINA

Laura Formichella

1. Introduction	247
2. Preliminary steps of change for foreign invested enterprises	249
3. Guidance Catalogues for foreign investment and Negative List	251
4. The Foreign Investment Law: scope of application	254
5. Market access and impact on the governance of companies with foreign capital	257
6. Intellectual property protection and technology transfer	260
7. Security review system	264
8. Conclusions	266

PRODUCTION AND TRANSFER OF WEALTH IN CHINA

Matteo Piccinali

1. Introduction	269
2. Political factors: the five-year planned economy	270
3. Social factors: minimum salary growth and urbanization	271
4. Economic factors: the economic crisis in the West and the new economic models	272
5. Conclusive notes	275

REGULATORY POWERS AND PUBLIC ROLE IN THE PRODUCTION OF WEALTH

Mario Gorlani

1. Premises	277
2. The Italian model in the relationship between State and market and between public institutions and freedom of enterprises, as regards the production of wealth	279
3. Which public institutions play a role in the economy and the market	284
4. How public institutions intervene in the market and in the production of wealth and according to which principles	287
5. Conclusions	288

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY AND CORPORATION

Maurizio Onza

- | | |
|---|-----|
| 1. Corporate social responsibility: an introduction | 293 |
| 2. Techniques of protection in the event of liability for damages in a corporation: A map | 297 |
| 3. Investigation on the normative system of written law | 300 |
| 4. Two questions about the future | 303 |

DAMAGES CAUSED BY ALGORITHMS: A STUDY BETWEEN CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY AND CIVIL LIABILITY

Francesco Maria Maffezzoni

- | | |
|--|-----|
| 1. Introduction, Business 4.0: revolution or reality? | 309 |
| 2. Algorithm error and use of the civil liability paradigm: limitations and reasons for a different approach | 314 |
| 3. Towards a new horizon | 326 |