

Index

	pag.
The authors	XVII
Preface	XIX
Chapter 1
Economia aziendale (Business management): business organizations and firms
by Marco Fasan and Antonio Costantini
1.1. Economia aziendale (Business management): definition and purpose	1
1.2. Business organization types	4
1.3. Household	5
1.4. Firms and market production	6
1.5. The nature of the firm	9
1.5.1. Transaction costs theory	9
1.5.2. Economic specialization	10
1.5.3. Firm types	11
1.6. Public sector organizations	14
1.6.1. The State intervention in the economy	15
1.6.2. New public management	19
1.7. Non-profit organizations	21
Glossary	24
Points of attention to Chapter 1	25
References	26
Chapter 2
The business context
by Laura Bini
2.1. The impact of context on business organizations	29
2.2. Main stakeholder categories	30

	pag.
2.3. The micro-environment and the macro-environment	33
2.4. The analysis of the macro-environment	34
2.4.1. Political factors	35
2.4.2. Economic factors	37
2.4.3. Sociological factors	39
2.4.4. Technological factors	40
2.4.5. Ecological factors	41
2.4.6. Legal factors	42
2.5. The analysis of the micro-environment	43
2.5.1. Competitors	44
2.5.2. Customers	46
2.5.3. Suppliers	47
2.5.4. New entrants (barriers to entry)	48
2.5.5. Substitute products/services	49
Glossary	49
Points of attention to Chapter 2	50
References	51

Chapter 3

Business strategy and value creation

by Federica Doni and Andrea Amaduzzi

3.1. Business strategy and value creation: definitions, theories, and approaches	53
3.2. Activities, resources, relationships	57
3.2.1. Classification of resources	57
3.2.2. Features of resources	58
3.3. Industry and market analysis	59
3.4. Business strategy and financial performance	61
3.5. Business strategy and competitive performance	63
3.6. Business strategy and sustainability performance	68
3.7. Competitive dynamics and strategic innovation	70
Glossary	75
Points of attention to Chapter 3	75
References	76

Chapter 4

Corporate governance and its institutional pillars

by Raffaele Trequattrini and Benedetta Cuozzo

4.1. Corporate governance as a typical issue of the modern corporation	79
--	----

	pag.
4.2. The corporate governance issues from the theoretical perspective	81
4.2.1. Agency Theory vs. Stewardship Theory	81
4.2.2. The stakeholder theory	83
4.2.2.1. The right of control of companies in the dialectic between stakeholders and shareholders	85
4.2.3. The market for corporate control theory	86
4.3. The solutions of corporate governance issues: the institutional models of modern corporations	88
4.4. The board of directors: functions, composition and organization	91
4.5. Synthesis and conclusions	95
Glossary	96
Points of attention to Chapter 4	97
References	97

Chapter 5

Business organizations and business combination

by Melchior Gromis di Trana and Laura Corazza

5.1. The role of business organizations	99
5.2. Organizational principles	101
5.3. Organizing the company	105
5.3.1. The functional structure	105
5.3.2. The divisional structure	106
5.3.3. The matrix structure	108
5.3.4. Hybrid structures and modern layouts	109
5.4. Teamwork	110
5.5. Organizational culture, leadership and followership	111
5.6. Limits in the legal entity's perspective	115
5.7. The corporate groups	117
5.8. Reasons behind business combination	119
5.9. Main characteristics	120
5.10. Formal agreements	122
Glossary	126
Points of attention to Chapter 5	126
References	126

*pag.Chapter 6*Internal control systems and management accounting systems

by Giuseppe D'Onza and Claudia Presti

6.1.	Introduction: The internal control system	129
6.2.	Input of the internal control system	132
6.3.	Elements of the internal control system	136
6.3.1.	Responsibility centres	136
6.3.2.	Budget	139
6.3.3.	Performance measurement system	146
6.3.4.	Cultural control	152
6.3.5.	Policies and procedures	153
6.3.6.	Reporting	153
	Glossary	155
	Points of attention to Chapter 6	155
	References	156

Chapter 7The system of values of a firm. A framework for the financial performance analysis of business operations

by Riccardo Stacchezzini

7.1.	A framework of analysis of corporate operations	159
7.2.	A classification of corporate operations	160
7.2.1.	Operations relating to the operating business area	161
7.2.2.	Operations relating to the financing business area	163
7.2.3.	Operations relating to the tax area	163
7.3.	The profiles for the appraisal of financial performance	164
7.3.1.	Financial position	164
7.3.2.	Cash flow	166
7.3.3.	Income	167
7.4.	The bookkeeping system that supports the preparation of the annual report: an overview	171
7.5.	The annual report as a "system of values" for the appraisal of corporate financial performance	178
7.5.1.	From the values in the bookkeeping system to the annual report	178
7.5.2.	From the financial statements to the appraisal of financial performance	181

	pag.
Glossary	182
Points of attention to Chapter 7	183
References	183

Chapter 8

Sustainability and Non-Financial Information

by Rosa Lombardi and Salvatore Principale

8.1. The concept of sustainability and the sustainability disclosure	185
8.2. Accounting, Sustainability Reports, and mandatory versus voluntary disclosure	186
8.3. The NFRD and national rules on Sustainability Reports	189
8.4. The recent update in the Sustainability Reports rules: CSRD, ESRS and ISSB	192
8.5. Non-Financial Information and intellectual capital in the guidelines, frameworks, and standards determining the non-financial performance	194
8.6. The pivotal role of accounting in representing climate change, biodiversity, water, and human-rights information, and metrics	195
8.6.1. Climate change	197
8.6.2. Biodiversity	198
8.6.3. Water	200
8.6.4. Human rights	201
Glossary	203
Points of attention to Chapter 8	203
References	204

Chapter 9

General purpose, annual reports objective and financial statement assumptions and principles

by Carlotta D'Este

9.1. Annual reports preparation and presentation: objectives, users and accounting rules	209
9.2. Financial information characteristics (“clausula generale”): clarity, truthfulness and correctness	215
9.3. Financial statement assumptions: the going concern and accrual accounting bases	219
9.4. General financial statement principles and recognition, and measurements methods	222

	pag.
9.5. Concluding remarks	229
Glossary	230
Points of attention to Chapter 9	231
References	231

Chapter 10

Structure and Contents of (Italian) Financial Statements

by Patrizia Riva

10.1. Standards and Framework	233
10.2. Sections of the Financial Statements	236
10.3. Balance Sheet	237
10.3.1. Statutory template under Article 2424 of the Italian Civil Code	237
10.3.2. Assets Macro-Classes	240
10.3.3. Macro-Classes of Liabilities	244
10.4. Income Statement	248
10.4.1. Statutory template under art. 2425 of the Italian Civil Code	249
10.4.2. Main Aggregates of the Income Statement	251
10.5. Cash Flow Statement	253
10.5.1. Statutory template under art. 2425-ter of the Italian Civil Code and OIC 10	253
10.5.2. Main Flows in the Cash Flow Statement	255
10.6. Notes to the Financial Report	256
10.7. Management Report	257
10.8. Disclosure of Non-financial Information	258
10.9. Short-Form Financial Report for SMEs	261
Glossary	263
Points of attention to Chapter 10	264
References	264

Chapter 11

Tangible fixed assets and Intangible assets

by Marco Maria Mattei and Eleonora Monaco

11.1. Introduction: accounting for fixed assets	267
11.2. Tangible fixed assets: acquisition and measurement at recognition	268
11.2.1. Cost incurred after acquisition	276
11.3. Tangible fixed assets: measurement at the reporting date	278
11.4. Intangible assets: types and issues	282

	pag.
11.5. Intangible assets: measurement at recognition and at the reporting date	286
11.6. Impairment of fixed assets	287
11.7. Disposal of fixed assets	289
11.8. Disclosures	290
Glossary	291
Points of attention to Chapter 11	292
References	293

Chapter 12

Inventories

by Francesco Avallone and Paola Ramassa

12.1. Nature and role of inventories	295
12.2. Valuation of inventories	299
12.2.1. Historical cost	300
12.2.2. Inventory flow	301
12.2.3. Net realisable value	304
12.3. Construction contracts	306
12.3.1. Percentage of completion method	309
12.3.2. Update of estimates and the loss in construction contract	313
12.3.3. Invoicing, percentage of completion, and prepayments	315
12.4. Presentation in the financial statements	316
Glossary	317
Points of attention to Chapter 12	318
References	318

Chapter 13

Consolidated financial statement and equity investments

by Pier Luigi Marchini, Veronica Tibiletti and Luca Fornaciari

13.1. Introduction	321
13.2. The consolidated financial statement	321
13.2.1. The aim of the consolidated financial statements and the regulatory evolution in Italy	322
13.2.2. Consolidation methods and the minority interests	323
13.2.3. The concept of control and the consolidation area	325
13.2.4. The consolidation differences	332
13.2.5. The infragroup transactions	335

	pag.
13.3. The Equity investments	337
13.3.1. The concept of equity investments	337
13.3.2. The equity investments as current assets	338
13.3.3. The equity investments as long-term assets	339
Glossary	343
Points of attention to Chapter 13	343
References	344

Chapter 14

Receivables, Payables, and Debt Securities

by Nicola Moscariello and Pietro Fera

14.1. Receivables, Payables, and Debt Securities	345
14.2. Receivables	346
14.2.1. Definition and item classification	346
14.2.2. Recognition and derecognition	347
14.2.3. Valuation issues: measurement at the initial recognition and subsequent recognitions	350
14.3. Payables	359
14.3.1. Definition and item classification	359
14.3.2. Recognition and derecognition	360
14.3.3. Valuation issues: measurement at the initial recognition and subsequent recognitions	361
14.4. Debt Securities	363
14.4.1. Definition and item classification	363
14.4.2. Valuation and impairment of debt securities	364
14.5. The information inside the notes to financial statements	368
Glossary	371
Points of attention to Chapter 14	371
References	372

Chapter 15

Additional Financial Reporting Issues: Provisions, Derivatives, and Accounting for Income Taxes

by Elisabetta Mafrolla, Christian Favino, Eugenio D'Amico, Felice Matozza and Antonio Netti

15.1. Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets, and gains	373
15.1.1. Definition and reporting of provisions	374

	pag.
15.1.1.1. The initial estimation	375
15.1.1.2. Subsequent adjustments	376
15.1.2. Contingent liabilities, and contingent assets and gains	378
15.2. Derivatives	379
15.2.1. The definition and the different types of derivatives	379
15.2.2. Initial recognition and subsequent measurement	380
15.2.3. Derivatives disclosure	387
15.3. Accounting for corporate income tax	388
15.3.1. Taxable income and pre-tax income	389
15.3.1.1. Permanent and temporary differences between tax- able income and pre-tax income	390
15.3.1.2. Taxable temporary differences causing deferred tax	391
15.3.1.3. Taxable temporary differences causing accrued tax	394
15.3.2. How to measure and report corporate income tax	396
Glossary	396
Points of attention to Chapter 15	397
References	398

Chapter 16

Financial statement analysis

by Monica Veneziani

16.1. Comparative Financial Statement Analysis	399
16.2. Balance Sheet Analysis	405
16.3. Income Statement Analysis	410
16.4. Basic elements of the reclassified Cash Flow Statement	416
16.5. Ratio analysis	418
16.5.1. Solvency ratios	419
16.5.2. Profitability ratios	422
16.5.3. Liquidity ratios	425
16.5.4. Development ratios	427
Glossary	429
Points of attention to Chapter 16	429
References	430
 Glossary	 433