

CONTENTS

	page
The citizens and the perceived impact of the EU Cohesion Policy	xiii
Elena Grech
Introduction	xv
Ilaria Ottaviano
The EU economic, social and territorial Cohesion Policy. Historical evolution and legal bases
Rosario Sapienza
1. What is the European Cohesion Policy?	1
2. Cohesion Policy and solidarity	3
3. First things first: the commission power of coordination of national schemes of regional state aids and the European regional policy	4
4. From the single European act to the Maastricht Treaty. The launching of a European Cohesion Policy	6
5. The European Union 2014 Enlargement and the fine tuning of cohesion strategies	8
6. Issues after the last reform	10
7. Wrapping it up. The evolving strategy of a partnership led by the Commission	12

Towards the overcoming of the distinction between internal and external EU territorial cooperation? The case of the macro-regional strategies

Michele Vellano

- | | | |
|----|---|----|
| 1. | The evolution of the European Union's approach to Cohesion Policy and territorial development between internal and external dimensions | 15 |
| 2. | The implications of adopting a macro-regional strategy | 19 |
| 3. | Existing and planned macro-regional strategies | 22 |
| 4. | The issue of the effectiveness of the rules adopted within the framework of macro-regional strategies | 25 |
| 5. | Between multilevel , multidimensional governance and rescaling approach , a new way on the horizon for European integration? | 27 |

The European Grouping of Territorial Cooperation

Simone Carrea

- | | | |
|------|---|----|
| 1. | The origins of the EGTC | 33 |
| 2. | The law applicable to the EGTC | 36 |
| 3. | The scope of the cooperation achievable through the EGTC | 38 |
| 3.1. | The subjective scope of cooperation | 39 |
| 3.2. | The geographical scope of cooperation | 40 |
| 3.3. | The material scope of cooperation | 41 |
| 4. | The powers of Member States vis-à-vis the cooperation established through the EGTC | 42 |
| 5. | The internal relations of the EGTC and its organization | 45 |
| 6. | The external relations of the EGTC | 47 |
| 7. | Current issues and future developments | 51 |

Territorial cohesion in Europe: towards a common European industrial and mobility policy

Maurizio Maresca

- | | | |
|----|---|----|
| 1. | Territorial cohesion? | 55 |
| 2. | The physiology of competition among Member States | 55 |
| 3. | The route to an industrial European policy | 56 |

	page
4. France and German contribution to an industrial policy. The basis of the Franco German plan and its failure	57
5. The elements of the European industrial common policy	60
6. The elements of a European mobility policy	63
7. The crisis of the international commercial system	67
8. Conclusions	69

Solidarity and cohesion in EU law

Claudia Cinnirella

1. Introduction	71
2. Interstate solidarity in EU law	72
3. The role of solidarity in social, economic and territorial Cohesion Policy	76
4. What's new in the 2021-2027 programming period?	79
5. Final remarks	82

Interactions between Cohesion Policy and Next Generation EU. "Planned financing" and the transformation of European economy

Sebastien Adalid

1. Introductory remarks	83
2. From reference to precursor	86
2.1. A necessary reference	86
2.2. An enhanced reference	89
3. From different to complementary	91
3.1. Differences	91
3.2. Complementarity	94
4. From ambition to failure?	96
4.1. Legal challenge: no implementation ahead?	96
4.2. Political challenge: no implementation ahead?	98

The European economic governance and the role of the EU Cohesion Policy

Ilaria Ottaviano

1.	Introductory remarks	101
2.	Evolution of Cohesion Policy objectives	102
3.	Conditionality in European Union law	104
3.1.	Macroeconomic conditionality in the structural funds	108
3.1.A.	Multilateral surveillance	110
3.1.B.	Prohibition of excessive government deficit and compliance with economic adjustment programmes	112
4.	Instruments for economic development and the role of the EU cohesion policy	117
4.1	The EU Structural Reform Support Programme	118
4.2.	Relationships between cohesion and stabilisation function	121
5.	Brief critical comments	124
6.	Conclusions	128

The rule of law conditionality

Viviana Sachetti

1.	Introduction	129
2.	The Regulation on the financial conditionality mechanism	131
3.	The annulment proceedings against the Regulation before the Court of Justice	136
4.	The Commission's Guidelines for the effective implementation of the Regulation	140
5.	The Hungarian case: first application of the mechanism. Some conclusive remarks	142

EU discipline concerning State aid within the regulation of internal market

Roberto Cippitani

1.	European integration and the construction of internal market	145
2.	Competition and State aid	146
3.	EU notion of 'enterprise'	147

	page
4. Relations between enterprises: SMEs Single Enterprises and Enterprise Groups, direct and indirect activities	148
4.1. Small- and medium-sized enterprises	149
4.2. Single undertaking and groups of undertakings	149
4.3. Direct and indirect economic activity	151
5. Exemptions and derogations to the application of the discipline on State aids	152
5.1. Derogations concerning specific regions within european union	152
5.2. Compatible aid: the ' de minimis ' regime	153
5.3. Compatible aid: subject matter exemption	154
5.4. Research organisations	154
6. Discipline of State aid and the principle of 'contextualisation'	155

The protection of the financial interests of the European Union

Antonio Caputo

1. The budget of the European Union	157
1.1. Union's own resources	158
1.2. The expenditure of the European Union	160
2. Frauds to the European Union budget	161
2.1. The Anti-Fraud Strategy: general principles	163
2.2. The anti-fraud profiles in the recovery and resilience device – Regulation (EU) 2021/241	166
2.3. The anti-fraud policy in the PNRR – L.D. 31 May 2021, n. 77	169
3. The Financial Guard. Structure, powers, prevention and fighting fraud strategy on financial resources provided by the EU	171
3.1. The "structure" of the Financial Guard for the prevention and suppression of Community frauds	172
3.2. The powers of the body in preventing and fighting Community fraud	174
3.3. The use of currency powers in the matter of public spending	176
3.4. The operational "paths" of the Financial Guard in the action to fight fraudulent conduct	178
3.5. Fraud system. Operational case study	184

The Authors	187
--------------------	-----

